

THE WOMEN'S RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Faculty Research Grant Application

Program Description

Applicants must be full-time faculty at BYU. Research should focus on women, their lives and experience, or gender research. The Institute encourages collaborative projects, interdisciplinary approaches to the study of women, and research on women internationally.

Guidelines

Applicants should submit an application, as well as a proposal using the following basic outline:

1. Curriculum vitae
2. Project summary (Purposes and significance of the research)
3. Project description
 - A. Brief statement of the problem
 - B. Research Method (Design and rationale of research)
 - C. Planned analysis of collected data
4. Publication plans
5. Itemized budget

Deadlines

Applications can be found at the Women's Research Institute (WRI) website (wri.byu.edu). Proposals are due to the Women's Research Institute, 1063 JFSB, by 5:00 P.M. on Friday, October 17, 2008. Recipients of the research grants will be notified by the end of November. Research funds will be awarded in January of the following year. A written report, that includes findings (either preliminary or final), copies of published material, presentations, or other grants applied for, coming from the WRI supported research must be received by the Women's Research Institute by December 31, 2009.
